Conditions of Membership

Applicants for membership of BrisBug agree to abide with the rules of the Club and its Constitution.

The Club has few formal rules and relies on the Constitution to govern its operations. The constitution can be viewed at the Club's web site or at its meeting venue.

Members are required to be courteous and respectful of other member's views and right to enjoy the Club's activities.

Members are required to take care of any Club property provided for their use, and to assist with the setup and clean up of venues used for a Club activity.

Members provide personal equipment for Club use or where assistance is sought for repairs or set up, at their own risk.

Applicants for membership are advised that the Club does not hold any Public Liability Insurance. Prospective members must assess if this is acceptable for their needs. Signing up for membership notes your acceptance to involvement in Club activities under this condition.

We meet at the Mitchelton Library and the Brisbane City Council holds Public liability Insurance cover while on it property.

These conditions may vary from time to time as directed by the Committee.
